

SIMPLY DIVINE

Active ladies can unwind in the latest fashion color for sporty footwear—wine

A didas mixes futuristic finish with feminine flower print detailing in the metallic lavender-hued Jhana Lux ($70). She'll look vibrant in violet but feel cool and collected when sporting the A List Mid by Fila ($65). The warm cranberry shades of Cabo from Palladium ($82.95) will glow next fall on this classic silhouette with crisscross straps and a non-skid bottom that offer extra security. Sassy suede and shiny patent dots in bold burgundy make Lacoste's Yaki Paillette ($110) the right choice for strolling through the park or shopping at the mall. Gola goes floral with Iris ($80), a canvas skimmer topped with a radiant red strap. The aubergine-toned patent leather Number 5 by PF Flyers ($120) will be her No. 1 shoe next autumn. Her feet will be at ease in the New Balance WF632 ($55), a cherry red yoga-inspired skimmer with a memory foam insert and fun material details.
