

Davie County, North Carolina

7 Reasons To Live In Fayetteville, NC

1 - Fayetteville, NC is publicly dedicated to doing everything they can to support the military servicemen/women and their families that enjoy life within their bounds. Fayetteville has a very strong military heritage of which they are very proud. Not being willing to rest on the past, Fayetteville is a town dedicated to supporting the troops that live there today.

2 - There are an absolute multitude of recreational opportunities for the residents of Fayetteville, NC including hiking, golf, easy trips to the beach, boating, and a host of other activities.

3 - Fayetteville, NC is located in an almost optimal spot near the East coast of the US in terms of cost of living. Many if not all of the wonderful amenities to which Fayetteville residents have access would cost many times more in other parts of the country than they do here in wonderful Fayetteville. The bottom line... you get charming Southern living with top level recreation and facilities for a fraction of what it would cost you in many other parts of the country.

4 - Climate - Living in Fayetteville you can play golf 12 months out of the year. Based in North Carolina not far from the coast, need we say more?

5 - Living in this town with its quaint downtown and beautiful rural areas while situated less than an hour from the capital of the state means you get the joys of a small town lifestyle with all of the conveniences of a big city.

6 - Fayetteville is a city that cares about itself and its residents. The leadership of the town is determined to see Fayetteville, NC be one of the premier places to live and to visit. That motivation and excitement means there is always something fun and interesting going on. If you are looking for a hum-drum place to live Fayetteville is NOT for you.

7 - We've touched on the desire of the Fayetteville leadership for the town to be a success. We've touched on the community support for the men and women in the armed forces. We've touched on the climate, the cost of living, the amenities and much more. Let's face it, Fayetteville, NC is the perfect place to live!

The bottom line is Fayetteville, NC is a wonderful town and frankly it would be difficult to list all of the great reasons that people choose to live there. What I've given you above is a brief listing of just seven of those many reasons.

Why just seven? Well, when I ponder and travel around Fayetteville, NC I often jot down little aspects of the town that grab me. What is amazing is that once I return to my home office (where I do most of my actual writing) I often find I have a list unlike any of the others I've written up before. This list of seven is just one of those great little lists and just happens to be the one I chose to share with you here today.
