Magical Evening takes place Wednesday, October 28 at Crown Coliseum

(FAYETTEVILLE, NC — October 16, 2009) —On Wednesday, October 28, a distinctive crowd of more than 6,600 military family members will enjoy a private, free performance of Disney On Ice celebrates 100 Years of Magic. Scheduled the day before Disney On Ice opens to the general public, the special night will allow the families of active duty service men and women to be the very first in Fayetteville to see this one-of-a-kind ice spectacular.

As part of the evening, 100 Gold Star Kids will be honored guests at a pre-show reception with some of the stars from the show. These children, who have lost a parent in military combat, will receive gift bags and VIP seating at the show and be acknowledged in a special announcement.

In an effort to capture all the wonderful memories of the night, Kodak is supplying all families with a one-time use Disney On Ice-themed camera. The cameras will allow patrons to take pictures during the performance that they can then share with their loved ones serving overseas.

Feld Entertainment, producers of Disney On Ice, partnered with the following organizations to make this special performance a reality:

- Bragg Special Activities Committee
- Association of Special Operations Professionals
- Armed Forces Communications and Electronic Association
- Association of the United States Army
- Special Forces Association
- Operation Home Front: North Carolina
- AFA: Pope Chapter
- Crown Center
- Progress Energy
- Systel
- The Fayetteville Observer
- General Dynamics
- Fayetteville Area Convention & Visitors Bureau
- Kodak

Disney On Ice celebrates 100 Years of Magic features beautifully choreographed figure skating to Academy Award®-winning songs "When You Wish Upon a Star," "Zip-a-Dee-Doo-Dah," "Beauty and the Beast," "Under the Sea," "Can You Feel the Love Tonight" and many more. Dazzling sets, memorable characters, beautiful costumes and exciting special effects will transport audiences through decades of beloved Disney stories.

Tickets for the general public run of Disney On Ice celebrates 100 Years of Magic are $12 and up and are available at the Crown Coliseum Box Office, Ticketmaster Outlets or by calling 1-800-745-3000.
